red wine

Tempranillo, Pasos de la Capula, Spain
£3.35 glass; £12.95 bottle

Fruit lead, modern Spanish wine with soft tannins – a great glass of red! Good value at this price level and our house recommendation.

Syrah, Finca la Linda, Argentina
£4.25 glass; £16.50 bottle

A fantastic grape variety that thrives on the sunny slopes of Argentina. A full bodied, smoky Shiraz with plenty of fruit and firm, chunky tannins.

Pinot Noir, Escale, France
£19.50 bottle

Made near the Pyreneese mountains in southern France, this wine has raspberry flavours and has been very lightly oaked. A lot of people turn their nose up at drinking red wine with fish and poultry but we think that this is a perfect accompaniment to such dishes – light, refreshing and deliciously smooth.

A fresh and aromatic blend of Sauvignon Blanc, Grenache Blanc and Clairette from a small vineyard near Avignon, in Southern France

Sauvignon Blanc, Julio Bouchon, Chile
£4.10 glass; £15.95 bottle
